SUPREME COURT DENIES CLAIM OF ALIEN ENEMY

Adolf Pavenstedt, arrested January 20, 1918, as an alien enemy, who re-cently filed suit against Francis P. Garvan, allen property custodian, to recover certain property confiscated under the "trading with the enemy act," is "still constructively in the custody of the War Department," ac-cording to Justice Bailey, of the Dis-trict Supreme Court, who today dismissed Pavenstedt's suit, stating that he has "no right to maintain his ac-tion," and must await the action of Congress on his claim and other sim-flar claims.
